Ian
A travel writer from Sydney committed to unearthing the lesser-seen parts of Bali.

Kellee
A fashion designer from Sydney searching and shopping for fun, sun and inspiration in Bali.

Weekend Warriors
One Destination, Two Different Adventures

Destination Bali
As soon as I hit the streets I find a neighbourhood “Padang” restaurant. Named after the city on the island of Sumatra where the cooking style originated, Padang food is all about thick, rich coconut-milk curries. Rendang – twice-cooked beefalo meat – is my all-time favourite.

RELAX AND UNWIND

Bodyworks (Jalan Kayu Jati 2, Petitenget; bodyworksbali.com) in Seminyak is the perfect place to recharge after a long flight or to meet the girls for a spa date. I've booked a manicure, pedicure and their signature cream hair bath rinse and scalp massage to make my hair shine.

SOUTHERN STYLE

I need to dance off dinner and one of the most energetic places do that is Motel Mexicola (Jalan Kayu Jati 9, Seminyak; motelmexicolabali.com). Like my jewellery label Santos Wish, the venue is Mexican-inspired, full of colours with Day of the Dead theming. Hola amigos, let's dance!

HANGING WITH THE BIG KIDS

While the cool kids are squeezed like sardines around the pool at the popular Potato Head Beach Club next door, I'm chilling in style with the grown-ups at Alila Seminyak’s subliminal beachfront pool (Jalan Tampan Ganganeh 9, Kerobokan; alilahotels.com). Sunset is mind-blowing. Time for a drink.

VEGGING OUT

After all the spa action I'm feeling peckish, so I hightail it to salad bar Cafe Zucchini (Jalan Kayu Aya 49, Seminyak) for an organic salad packed with feta and quinoa and a green smoothie. It's just what I need to rebalance and keeps me fuelled until dinner.

ARRIVAL TIME

I check into Kubu Villas (Jalan Raya Seminyak, Gang Plawa 33F, Seminyak; villakubu.com). Kubu was one of the first villas in Seminyak and is still one of the best. I love the traditional Indonesian artwork and interiors. It makes me feel I’ve arrived in Bali.

FRI AUGUST 10, 2018

12:00 - Luna 2 (Jalan Sarinande 22, Seminyak; luna2.com) is a quirky design “studiotel” that appeals to tourists looking for something different in Bali. There’s a champagne and caviar bar on the rooftop, a Mondrian-inspired pool and a retro nightclub in the basement that’s very Austin Powers. Yeah, baby!

13:00 - I fill up on Indonesian food and stocks up on essentials in Seminyak.

16:00 - I visit a day spa, catch the sunset and hits the dance floor at a Mexican bar.

17:00 - Earlier this year, the first overseas chapter of Movida, Melbourne’s famous tapas restaurant, opened at the new Katamama Hotel (Jalan Petitenget 51, Kerobokan; katamama.com) in Seminyak. I’ve arranged to meet a few friends there for dinner.

18:30 - I’ll never forget my first sunset bar experience in Bali 10 years ago when a friend in the know took me to Ku De Ta (Jalan Kayu Aya 9, Seminyak; kudeta.com) – and it’s still one of my favourites. It’s right on the beachfront with comfy daybeds, divine cocktails, costumes and DJs.

19:30 - Earlier this year, Chef Brent Mills turned The Corner House into a Bondi Beach institution with his thin and crisp Roman-style pizzas. Now he has his own place – Hanks Liquor and Pizza (Jalan Kayu Aya 27X, Oberoi). More than just a pizzeria, Hanks is a hub for the Bondi-Brunswick-Bali brigade. The place pumps on weekends with live bands and DJs.

HANKS FOR THE MEMORIES

Chef Brent Mills turned The Corner House into a Bondi Beach institution with his thin and crisp Roman-style pizzas. Now he has his own place – Hanks Liquor and Pizza (Jalan Kayu Aya 27X, Oberoi). More than just a pizzeria, Hanks is a hub for the Bondi-Brunswick-Bali brigade. The place pumps on weekends with live bands and DJs.

VEGGIN OUT

After all the spa action I’m feeling peckish, so I hightail it to salad bar Cafe Zucchini (Jalan Kayu Aya 49, Seminyak) for an organic salad packed with feta and quinoa and a green smoothie. It’s just what I need to rebalance and keeps me fueled until dinner.

VEGGIN OUT

I need to dance off dinner and one of the most energetic places to do that is Motel Mexicola (Jalan Kayu Jati 9, Seminyak; motelmexicolabali.com). Like my jewellery label Santos Wish, the venue is Mexican-inspired, full of colours with Day of the Dead theming. Hola amigos, let’s dance!

SUNSET DRINKS

I’ll never forget my first sunset bar experience in Bali 10 years ago when a friend in the know took me to Ku De Ta (Jalan Kayu Aya 9, Seminyak; kudeta.com) – and it’s still one of my favourites. It’s right on the beachfront with comfy daybeds, divine cocktails, costumes and DJs.

SAIGON STREET

Saigon Street (Jalan Petitenget 77X, Seminyak; saigonstreetbali.com) is a hotspot in Bali. I love the spearmint and pink pastel interior and 1980s pop tunes; this place has fun written all over it. And I love the Vietnamese menu. Tonight I’m having the crab dressed with coconut, chilli and lime and a Miss Saigon cocktail.

SOUTHERN STYLE

I need to dance off dinner and one of the most energetic places to do that is Motel Mexicola (Jalan Kayu Jati 9, Seminyak; motelmexicolabali.com). Like my jewellery label Santos Wish, the venue is Mexican-inspired, full of colours with Day of the Dead theming. Hola amigos, let’s dance!

KELLEE

I fill up on Indonesian food and stocks up on essentials in Seminyak.

RELAX AND UNWIND

Bodyworks (Jalan Kayu Jati 2, Petitenget; bodyworksbali.com) in Seminyak is the perfect place to recharge after a long flight or to meet the girls for a spa date. I’ve booked a manicure, pedicure and their signature cream hair bath rinse and scalp massage to make my hair shine.

MELTING POT

Saigon Street (Jalan Petitenget 77X, Seminyak; saigonstreetbali.com) is a hotspot in Bali. I love the spearmint and pink pastel interior and 1980s pop tunes; this place has fun written all over it. And I love the Vietnamese menu. Tonight I’m having the crab dressed with coconut, chilli and lime and a Miss Saigon cocktail.

VEGGIN OUT

After all the spa action I’m feeling peckish, so I hightail it to salad bar Cafe Zucchini (Jalan Kayu Aya 49, Seminyak) for an organic salad packed with feta and quinoa and a green smoothie. It’s just what I need to rebalance and keeps me fueled until dinner.

HANGING WITH THE BIG KIDS

While the cool kids are squeezed like sardines around the pool at the popular Potato Head Beach Club next door, I’m chilling in style with the grown-ups at Alila Seminyak’s subliminal beachfront pool (Jalan Tampan Ganganeh 9, Kerobokan; alilahotels.com). Sunset is mind-blowing. Time for a drink.

KELLEE

I fill up on Indonesian food and stocks up on essentials in Seminyak.

SUNSET DRINKS

I’ll never forget my first sunset bar experience in Bali 10 years ago when a friend in the know took me to Ku De Ta (Jalan Kayu Aya 9, Seminyak; kudeta.com) – and it’s still one of my favourites. It’s right on the beachfront with comfy daybeds, divine cocktails, costumes and DJs.

SOUTHERN STYLE

I need to dance off dinner and one of the most energetic places to do that is Motel Mexicola (Jalan Kayu Jati 9, Seminyak; motelmexicolabali.com). Like my jewellery label Santos Wish, the venue is Mexican-inspired, full of colours with Day of the Dead theming. Hola amigos, let’s dance!

VEGGIN OUT

After all the spa action I’m feeling peckish, so I hightail it to salad bar Cafe Zucchini (Jalan Kayu Aya 49, Seminyak) for an organic salad packed with feta and quinoa and a green smoothie. It’s just what I need to rebalance and keeps me fueled until dinner.

KELLEE

I fill up on Indonesian food and stocks up on essentials in Seminyak.

ARRIVAL TIME

I check into Kubu Villas (Jalan Raya Seminyak, Gang Plawa 33F, Seminyak; villakubu.com). Kubu was one of the first villas in Seminyak and is still one of the best. I love the traditional Indonesian artwork and interiors. It makes me feel I’ve arrived in Bali.
heads off a road trip down to the Bukit Peninsula to see temples and a museum

SATURDAY

6:00 AM

WEEKEND WARRIORS

TWO WHEELS GOOD
I walk down to the beachfront at Legian. My mission: to hire a motorbike for a day trip down to the Bukit Peninsula in Bali’s deep south. I remove the owner gives me the bike’s registration papers and that I’m carrying both my Australian and international driver’s licenses.

8:00 AM

HIDDEN SECRET
I head south along Jalan Sunset and then over the Mandara Toll Road to the Museum Pasifika (Bali Tourism Development Corp., Complex, Block P in Nusa Dua. With 350 paintings and 250 artefacts from 25 different countries, including crazy face masks from New Guinea, Pasifika is the most underestimated tourist attraction in Bali. Entry is $7.

10:30 AM

WINNING WALK
I must have a coffee before I do anything today so I walk down to Sisterfields (Jalan Kayu Aya, Seminyak; sisterfieldsbali.com). There’s always a free table or I can sit at the bar and have a large latte while replying to work emails on my phone.

12:00 PM

LUNCH WITH THE GIRLS
I catch up with a few of my expat friends. Chloe, who’s an interior designer; and Varnie, who owns Nuala Retreats (nualaretreats.com.au), something I do every time I come to Bali.

2:00 PM

TEMPLE OF DANCE
I get back on my bike and follow Jalan Labuansait for 15 minutes to the south-west corner of Bali. Perched upon a steep cliff at the end of the road is Uluwatu Temple, 800 years old and absolutely magnificent. I make sure I get a front row seat for the daily 6pm “kecak” dance performance, where 50 Balinese performers chant hymns and dance.

4:00 PM

SHOPPING!!!
Starting at Seminyak Square, we work our way west along Jalan Kayu Aya. There are a lot of French designers in Bali right now and the latest is Gooseberry Intimates (gooseberryintimates.com), an underwear designer. I also need to pick up a bikini or two from the Natasha Gan boutique (natashagan.com.au), something I do every time I come to Bali.

6:00 PM

HISTORIC DINNER
There are so many good restaurants in Bali but Ji is unique. It sits inside a 300-year-old wooden temple from the Indonesian island of Java that was taken apart, shipped over and reconstructed piece-by-piece on the grounds of Hotel Tugu (Pantai Batu Bolong, Canggu; tuguhotels.com) in Canggu. The menu is Japanese with lots of sushi, grilled seafood selections and hot and cold sake to choose from.

8:00 PM

PRIVATE BEACH
I get back on my bike and follow Jalan Labuansait for 15 minutes to the south-west corner of Bali. Perched upon a steep cliff at the end of the road is Uluwatu Temple, 800 years old and absolutely magnificent. I make sure I get a front row seat for the daily 6pm “kecak” dance performance, where 50 Balinese performers chant hymns and dance.

10:00 PM

PEAKING STUNTS
On my way back to Seminyak, I stop for dinner at Sundara Beach Club (Jalan Raya Pantai Berawa, Jimbaran; sundara.com), the beachfront restaurant and bar at the Four Seasons Jimbaran Bay. I find a table in the al fresco area near the fire pit and order a serving of grilled Jimbaran Bay river prawns and a Bloom of Sundara cocktail.

12:00 AM

WEEKEND WARRIORS

TWO WHEELS GOOD
I walk down to the beachfront at Legian. My mission: to hire a motorbike for a day trip down to the Bukit Peninsula in Bali’s deep south. I remove the owner gives me the bike’s registration papers and that I’m carrying both my Australian and international driver’s licenses.

8:00 AM

HIDDEN SECRET
I head south along Jalan Sunset and then over the Mandara Toll Road to the Museum Pasifika (Bali Tourism Development Corp., Complex, Block P in Nusa Dua. With 350 paintings and 250 artefacts from 25 different countries, including crazy face masks from New Guinea, Pasifika is the most underestimated tourist attraction in Bali. Entry is $7.

10:30 AM

WINNING WALK
I must have a coffee before I do anything today so I walk down to Sisterfields (Jalan Kayu Aya, Seminyak; sisterfieldsbali.com). There’s always a free table or I can sit at the bar and have a large latte while replying to work emails on my phone.

12:00 PM

LUNCH WITH THE GIRLS
I catch up with a few of my expat friends. Chloe, who’s an interior designer; and Varnie, who owns Nuala Retreats (nualaretreats.com.au), something I do every time I come to Bali.

2:00 PM

TEMPLE OF DANCE
I get back on my bike and follow Jalan Labuansait for 15 minutes to the south-west corner of Bali. Perched upon a steep cliff at the end of the road is Uluwatu Temple, 800 years old and absolutely magnificent. I make sure I get a front row seat for the daily 6pm “kecak” dance performance, where 50 Balinese performers chant hymns and dance.

4:00 PM

SHOPPING!!!
Starting at Seminyak Square, we work our way west along Jalan Kayu Aya. There are a lot of French designers in Bali right now and the latest is Gooseberry Intimates (gooseberryintimates.com), an underwear designer. I also need to pick up a bikini or two from the Natasha Gan boutique (natashagan.com.au), something I do every time I come to Bali.

6:00 PM

HISTORIC DINNER
There are so many good restaurants in Bali but Ji is unique. It sits inside a 300-year-old wooden temple from the Indonesian island of Java that was taken apart, shipped over and reconstructed piece-by-piece on the grounds of Hotel Tugu (Pantai Batu Bolong, Canggu; tuguhotels.com) in Canggu. The menu is Japanese with lots of sushi, grilled seafood selections and hot and cold sake to choose from.

8:00 PM

PRIVATE BEACH
I get back on my bike and follow Jalan Labuansait for 15 minutes to the south-west corner of Bali. Perched upon a steep cliff at the end of the road is Uluwatu Temple, 800 years old and absolutely magnificent. I make sure I get a front row seat for the daily 6pm “kecak” dance performance, where 50 Balinese performers chant hymns and dance.

10:00 PM

PEAKING STUNTS
On my way back to Seminyak, I stop for dinner at Sundara Beach Club (Jalan Raya Pantai Berawa, Jimbaran; sundara.com), the beachfront restaurant and bar at the Four Seasons Jimbaran Bay. I find a table in the al fresco area near the fire pit and order a serving of grilled Jimbaran Bay river prawns and a Bloom of Sundara cocktail.

12:00 AM

WEEKEND WARRIORS

TWO WHEELS GOOD
I walk down to the beachfront at Legian. My mission: to hire a motorbike for a day trip down to the Bukit Peninsula in Bali’s deep south. I remove the owner gives me the bike’s registration papers and that I’m carrying both my Australian and international driver’s licenses.

8:00 AM

HIDDEN SECRET
I head south along Jalan Sunset and then over the Mandara Toll Road to the Museum Pasifika (Bali Tourism Development Corp., Complex, Block P in Nusa Dua. With 350 paintings and 250 artefacts from 25 different countries, including crazy face masks from New Guinea, Pasifika is the most underestimated tourist attraction in Bali. Entry is $7.

10:30 AM

WINNING WALK
I must have a coffee before I do anything today so I walk down to Sisterfields (Jalan Kayu Aya, Seminyak; sisterfieldsbali.com). There’s always a free table or I can sit at the bar and have a large latte while replying to work emails on my phone.

12:00 PM

LUNCH WITH THE GIRLS
I catch up with a few of my expat friends. Chloe, who’s an interior designer; and Varnie, who owns Nuala Retreats (nualaretreats.com.au), something I do every time I come to Bali.

2:00 PM

TEMPLE OF DANCE
I get back on my bike and follow Jalan Labuansait for 15 minutes to the south-west corner of Bali. Perched upon a steep cliff at the end of the road is Uluwatu Temple, 800 years old and absolutely magnificent. I make sure I get a front row seat for the daily 6pm “kecak” dance performance, where 50 Balinese performers chant hymns and dance.

4:00 PM

SHOPPING!!!
Starting at Seminyak Square, we work our way west along Jalan Kayu Aya. There are a lot of French designers in Bali right now and the latest is Gooseberry Intimates (gooseberryintimates.com), an underwear designer. I also need to pick up a bikini or two from the Natasha Gan boutique (natashagan.com.au), something I do every time I come to Bali.

6:00 PM

HISTORIC DINNER
There are so many good restaurants in Bali but Ji is unique. It sits inside a 300-year-old wooden temple from the Indonesian island of Java that was taken apart, shipped over and reconstructed piece-by-piece on the grounds of Hotel Tugu (Pantai Batu Bolong, Canggu; tuguhotels.com) in Canggu. The menu is Japanese with lots of sushi, grilled seafood selections and hot and cold sake to choose from.
SUNDAY

09:00
ROAD TRIP
I’m on a mission to find the best pool action that Bali has to offer. So Chloé and I are going driving down to Uluwatu on the Bukit Peninsula where there are designer pools set on cliffs with vast ocean views. But first we’re going to need coffee, so we stop off at Starbucks for a roadie.

11:00
GREEK GODDESS
El Kabron Spanish Restaurant Cliff Club (Jalan Pantai Cemongak, Pecatu; elkabron.com) is a little piece of Mykonos in Bali, with white-washed wooden furniture set around a stunning turquoise pool perched 50 metres above sea level. If you come here, make sure to try the sangrias. They’re the best I’ve ever tasted.

12:00
POOL TIME
I don’t go far for lunch. I don’t even leave the club. I sashay over to Splash’s poolside bar and order a big serving of bacon and eggs washed down with an old-fashioned chocolate milkshake. Then I plonk myself on a sun lounge and take another dip in the pool before I go.

14:00
BURGERS ‘N’ BEATS
The Deus cafe at the Deus Ex Machina custom motorbike showroom (Jalan Batu Mejan 8, Canggu; deuscustoms.com) cooks up serious beefburgers just how I like them with melted cheddar, caramelised onion, mustard and mayo. A band kicks off at 8pm. Within half an hour, the place is packed. How can you not love Bali?

16:00
SUNSET SURF
Come sunset every hipster and his dog in Canggu heads down to Batu Bolong beach to watch the sunset and maybe sink a few beers. But I’ve got energy to burn so I hire a longboard from a shack on the beach and run into the ocean for a few sets of waves. It’s dark by the time I emerge.

19:00
ROAD TRIP
I’m on a mission to find the best pool action that Bali has to offer. So Chloe and I are going driving down to Uluwatu on the Bukit Peninsula where there are designer pools set on cliffs with vast ocean views. But first we’re going to need coffee, so we stop off at Starbucks for a roadie.

WORK IT OUT
I use the Bluebird taxi app to order a taxi to take me to the Canggu Club (Jalan Pantai Berawa, Canggu; cangguclub.com) where I kickstart my day with an hour’s workout at the gym. Entry is $30 or $18 for kids.

11:00
G O O D  O R A N G E
Karma Kandara (Jalan Villa Kandara, Ungasan) is another ultra-luxury property on Uluwatu’s millionaire’s row. A travelator leads down to the famous Karma Beach Club but we’re staying at the top by the infinity pool. This is my pick for the most rockstar-worthy Bali pool.

12:00
GREEK GODDESS
El Kabron Spanish Restaurant Cliff Club (Jalan Pantai Cemongak, Pecatu; elkabron.com) is a little piece of Mykonos in Bali, with white-washed wooden furniture set around a stunning turquoise pool perched 50 metres above sea level. If you come here, make sure to try the sangrias. They’re the best I’ve ever tasted.

14:00
BURGERS ‘N’ BEATS
The Deus cafe at the Deus Ex Machina custom motorbike showroom (Jalan Batu Mejan 8, Canggu; deuscustoms.com) cooks up serious beefburgers just how I like them with melted cheddar, caramelised onion, mustard and mayo. A band kicks off at 8pm. Within half an hour, the place is packed. How can you not love Bali?

16:00
SUNSET SURF
Come sunset every hipster and his dog in Canggu heads down to Batu Bolong beach to watch the sunset and maybe sink a few beers. But I’ve got energy to burn so I hire a longboard from a shack on the beach and run into the ocean for a few sets of waves. It’s dark by the time I emerge.

19:00
ROAD TRIP
I’m on a mission to find the best pool action that Bali has to offer. So Chloe and I are going driving down to Uluwatu on the Bukit Peninsula where there are designer pools set on cliffs with vast ocean views. But first we’re going to need coffee, so we stop off at Starbucks for a roadie.

WORK IT OUT
I use the Bluebird taxi app to order a taxi to take me to the Canggu Club (Jalan Pantai Berawa, Canggu; cangguclub.com) where I kickstart my day with an hour’s workout at the gym. Entry is $30 or $18 for kids.

11:00
G O O D  O R A N G E
Karma Kandara (Jalan Villa Kandara, Ungasan) is another ultra-luxury property on Uluwatu’s millionaire’s row. A travelator leads down to the famous Karma Beach Club but we’re staying at the top by the infinity pool. This is my pick for the most rockstar-worthy Bali pool.

12:00
GREEK GODDESS
El Kabron Spanish Restaurant Cliff Club (Jalan Pantai Cemongak, Pecatu; elkabron.com) is a little piece of Mykonos in Bali, with white-washed wooden furniture set around a stunning turquoise pool perched 50 metres above sea level. If you come here, make sure to try the sangrias. They’re the best I’ve ever tasted.

14:00
BURGERS ‘N’ BEATS
The Deus cafe at the Deus Ex Machina custom motorbike showroom (Jalan Batu Mejan 8, Canggu; deuscustoms.com) cooks up serious beefburgers just how I like them with melted cheddar, caramelised onion, mustard and mayo. A band kicks off at 8pm. Within half an hour, the place is packed. How can you not love Bali?

16:00
SUNSET SURF
Come sunset every hipster and his dog in Canggu heads down to Batu Bolong beach to watch the sunset and maybe sink a few beers. But I’ve got energy to burn so I hire a longboard from a shack on the beach and run into the ocean for a few sets of waves. It’s dark by the time I emerge.

19:00
ROAD TRIP
I’m on a mission to find the best pool action that Bali has to offer. So Chloe and I are going driving down to Uluwatu on the Bukit Peninsula where there are designer pools set on cliffs with vast ocean views. But first we’re going to need coffee, so we stop off at Starbucks for a roadie.

WORK IT OUT
I use the Bluebird taxi app to order a taxi to take me to the Canggu Club (Jalan Pantai Berawa, Canggu; cangguclub.com) where I kickstart my day with an hour’s workout at the gym. Entry is $30 or $18 for kids.

11:00
G O O D  O R A N G E
Karma Kandara (Jalan Villa Kandara, Ungasan) is another ultra-luxury property on Uluwatu’s millionaire’s row. A travelator leads down to the famous Karma Beach Club but we’re staying at the top by the infinity pool. This is my pick for the most rockstar-worthy Bali pool.

12:00
GREEK GODDESS
El Kabron Spanish Restaurant Cliff Club (Jalan Pantai Cemongak, Pecatu; elkabron.com) is a little piece of Mykonos in Bali, with white-washed wooden furniture set around a stunning turquoise pool perched 50 metres above sea level. If you come here, make sure to try the sangrias. They’re the best I’ve ever tasted.

14:00
BURGERS ‘N’ BEATS
The Deus cafe at the Deus Ex Machina custom motorbike showroom (Jalan Batu Mejan 8, Canggu; deuscustoms.com) cooks up serious beefburgers just how I like them with melted cheddar, caramelised onion, mustard and mayo. A band kicks off at 8pm. Within half an hour, the place is packed. How can you not love Bali?

16:00
SUNSET SURF
Come sunset every hipster and his dog in Canggu heads down to Batu Bolong beach to watch the sunset and maybe sink a few beers. But I’ve got energy to burn so I hire a longboard from a shack on the beach and run into the ocean for a few sets of waves. It’s dark by the time I emerge.

19:00
ROAD TRIP
I’m on a mission to find the best pool action that Bali has to offer. So Chloe and I are going driving down to Uluwatu on the Bukit Peninsula where there are designer pools set on cliffs with vast ocean views. But first we’re going to need coffee, so we stop off at Starbucks for a roadie.

WORK IT OUT
I use the Bluebird taxi app to order a taxi to take me to the Canggu Club (Jalan Pantai Berawa, Canggu; cangguclub.com) where I kickstart my day with an hour’s workout at the gym. Entry is $30 or $18 for kids.

11:00
G O O D  O R A N G E
Karma Kandara (Jalan Villa Kandara, Ungasan) is another ultra-luxury property on Uluwatu’s millionaire’s row. A travelator leads down to the famous Karma Beach Club but we’re staying at the top by the infinity pool. This is my pick for the most rockstar-worthy Bali pool.

12:00
GREEK GODDESS
El Kabron Spanish Restaurant Cliff Club (Jalan Pantai Cemongak, Pecatu; elkabron.com) is a little piece of Mykonos in Bali, with white-washed wooden furniture set around a stunning turquoise pool perched 50 metres above sea level. If you come here, make sure to try the sangrias. They’re the best I’ve ever tasted.

14:00
BURGERS ‘N’ BEATS
The Deus cafe at the Deus Ex Machina custom motorbike showroom (Jalan Batu Mejan 8, Canggu; deuscustoms.com) cooks up serious beefburgers just how I like them with melted cheddar, caramelised onion, mustard and mayo. A band kicks off at 8pm. Within half an hour, the place is packed. How can you not love Bali?

16:00
SUNSET SURF
Come sunset every hipster and his dog in Canggu heads down to Batu Bolong beach to watch the sunset and maybe sink a few beers. But I’ve got energy to burn so I hire a longboard from a shack on the beach and run into the ocean for a few sets of waves. It’s dark by the time I emerge.

19:00
ROAD TRIP
I’m on a mission to find the best pool action that Bali has to offer. So Chloe and I are going driving down to Uluwatu on the Bukit Peninsula where there are designer pools set on cliffs with vast ocean views. But first we’re going to need coffee, so we stop off at Starbucks for a roadie.